Dear Sir/Madam,

You can continue to receive AlphaValue's Research under MiFID II.

Please note that AlphaValue provides « Substantive Research » which is not an inducement under the new MIFID II regulation.

AlphaValue's independent research information services are provided on a subscription basis. These cannot be considered an inducement as AlphaValue does not provide anything else to its clients.

Please note:

- We do not have a brokerage business or offer Execution/Trading Services.
- We do not have any commercial relationships with companies under our coverage.
- Analysts bonuses, if any, are discretionary and Ebitda based.

If your firm is not currently an AlphaValue client, you can request a complimentary trial to evaluate our research here: www.alphavalue.com/#trial

For your convenience, our research is also available via the main information terminals (Bloomberg, ThomsonReuters, Factset and Capital IQ).

We are ranked n°1 Extel 2017 – Independent European Equity Research provider.

Thank you for your time.

Yours faithfully,

Pierre-Yves Gauthier
CEO - AlphaValue
